

Training Checklist – basic

Flow anesthesia system

Please confirm that you have gone through and understood the following steps of the introduction to the Flow anesthesia system.

Starting the anesthesia system from power off

Connecting the patient breathing circuit to the anesthesia system

Perform a system checkout (SCO)

Using suction and the Aux O2

Starting the anesthesia system from standby mode

Setting fresh gas flow and concentration

Manual ventilation

Setting ventilation control parameters

Switching between ventilation modes

Setting agent concentration

Reading gas concentration measurements

Reading ventilation parameter measurements

Setting and responding to alarm

Ending a case

Using emergency ventilation

Checking remaining battery capacity

Date:

Printed name and signature trainee:

Printed name and signature Getinge trainer: